Talking Story

Talking Story is part of a collection of cyber safety resources

*Made in Ali Curung, Yuelamu, Ikuntji, Papunya,
Mount Liebig and Kintore
May - July 2014*

Talking Story is designed to help develop ways to talk about cyber safety issues young people face and are to be used in conjunction with the Hacked film available at <http://caylus.org.au>

Talking Story is part of a collection of resources including a total of three short films, Hacked, Jealousing and Too Many Stories, an English and a Pintupi-Luritja story book, Shallequa and Estella Eastside Girls, and posters. All resources were developed in Ali Curung, Yuelamu, Ikuntji, Papunya, Mount Liebig and Kintore, in consultation with young people and families in each community.

All the resources are available to download at <http://caylus.org.au>

Talking Story is available to download as a PDF and as a working excel document to allow any useful changes or to be made.

Shelly and Martina

Why do you think the girls decided to hack into Nampitjimpa's account?

Do you think they could have logged for Nampitjimpa? How?

If Shelly and Martina didn't know how to log-out, who do you think they could ask?

Do you think Shelly and Marissa will do this again?

How do you think Shelly and Martina would feel if this happened to them?

At the end of the movie Shelly and Martina say sorry to Nampitjimpa. Do you think there is anyone else they could say sorry to?

Emma

How do you think Emma felt when she saw someone was swearing at her online?

When Emma sees someone has been swearing at her online, what does she do?

Do you think she did the right thing?

Did Emma remember to log-out?

If her sister Lucy wasn't around, who else might Emma be able to talk to about it?

What are the other things Emma can do, when she sees messages, comments or photos online that she doesn't like?

Emma knows Shelly and Martina, but do you think it is possible that people Emma doesn't know might be contacting her online?

If Emma swore back at Nampitjimpa online, what might happen?

Lucy

What did Lucy do when her sister Emma told her what had happened?

Do you think what Lucy did was a hard thing to do? Why/Why not?

What did you like about the way Lucy spoke with Nampitjimpa?

If Lucy and Emma got angry with Nampitjimpa, how might the movie have ended?

Nampitjimpa

Why were Shelly and Martina able to hack into Nampitjimpa's facebook account?

What are some other ways people might have been able to hack into Nampitjimpa's account?

Do you think this has happened to Nampitjimpa before? When?

How do you think Nampitjimpa feels when she finds out she is being blamed for something she didn't do?

If Nampitjimpa and Emma had a fight, how do you think Shelly and Martina would feel?

If Nampitjimpa and Emma had a fight, who else do you think might get involved?

The girls

What do the girls tell us about at the end of the movie?

Are the things the girls tell us about important? Why?

Do you know anyone who knows all about how to stay safe and happy online?

Do you think you are like the girls? Are you able to show others how to stay safe online?

The Youth Worker

Do you have a youth worker like Nangala in your community?

Do you have someone you talk to when you have worries?

When we talk to someone about our worries, how do we want that person to be?

What do you think Nangala the youth worker would do if Emma had of told her about the swearing online?
